WHAT IS A LEARNING AGREEMENT (LA)?

• Official document listing the courses you will take at your host university, in exchange for VUB courses

• You select courses worth 21-30 ECTS (for one semester)

• Each selected course in your host university is linked to a VUB course

• There needs to be a balance between the total amount of ECTS on both sides of the learning agreement (max. 2 ECTS difference between both sides)

• In case of an imbalance in ECTS between both sides, the ECTS of the host institution count
LEARNING AGREEMENT

HOW DO I CREATE A LA?

• Students are responsible for their own LA
• Take a look at the website of the host institution for information on available courses
• Contact the exchange coordinator at the host institution
• You will create an LA before going to the host institution, but keep in mind that you can make changes to you LA during the first weeks of your mobility
APPLICATION PROCEDURE

- STEP 1: Submit a top-3 of destinations + motivation letter
  - Deadline: 16 December 2019

- Selection procedure:
  - Exchange coordinators select students for destinations
  - Criteria: motivation letter + grades (if available)
  - All applicants are ranked based on criteria, and allocated to destinations
  - You will receive an email from your exchange coordinator in January
STEP 2: Send a first proposal of your LA to your exchange coordinator

- Deadline: 3 February 2020
- Use the template “Document voorstel Learning Agreement“, available on Canvas
- Add course description of selected courses (in English)
- You will receive feedback from your exchange coordinator
APPLICATION PROCEDURE

- STEP 3: Send a revised learning agreement to your exchange coordinator
  - Deadline: 2 March 2020
  - Exchange coordinator will decide if your revised LA can be approved
  - If your LA is approved, the exchange coordinator will officially nominate you for an exchange with IRMO
  - IRMO will contact you, to guide you through the rest of the application procedure
LEARNING AGREEMENT
APPLICATION PROCEDURE FOR INTERNSHIPS

• STEP 1: Contact your internship coordinator
  • You can suggest a destination of your own choosing
  • Get approval from internship coordinator on destination and internship plan

• STEP 2: Contact your exchange coordinator
  • Deadline: 2 March 2020
  • Inform exchange coordinator of destination, so we can nominate you with IRMO
• My LA is already officially approved, but I want to make changes. What do I need to do?
  • Contact your exchange coordinator. Send a proposal for a changed LA using the template "Document voorstel Learning Agreement", available on Canvas

• I changed my mind and I want to stop my exchange
  • Inform your exchange coordinator, IRMO, and the host institution

• Do I need to register the VUB courses in my LA in self-service?
  • No, the faculty administration will do this for you

• Can I select a language course in my LA?
  • Yes, in exchange for a VUB keuzevak and provided that the language course is taught at the host institution
• I have to redo exams at the VUB in August-September, can I still go on exchange?
  • You will have to wait until the official proclamation of the exams in the beginning of September before you can leave on exchange. You will be allowed to go on exchange if you meet the eligibility criteria and if you did not get an “Inschrijving niet toegelaten” following the exams.

• I failed an exam at the host institution, what now?
  • You can redo the exam at the host institution. You cannot do the exam of the linked VUB course in August-September!

• I want to leave in the first week of February, but I still have an exam at the VUB.
  • You can ask the dean of the faculty to allow you to do the exam on a different day (see Onderwijs- en examenreglement)
• VUB students can become a “buddy” of an incoming international student
  • Help international students feel welcome
  • Introduce them to social networks
  • Help them find their way at the VUB and in Brussels
• Website:
  • http://esnvubehb.org/buddy-programme
